IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

FINANCE SECRETARIAT

Mysore Sales Tax Act, 1957—Collection of tax by Government Departments under Section 19 of the Act—Procedure for verification—Furnishing of monthly statements to Commercial Taxes Department—Instructions.

CIRCULAR

No. FD 273 CSL 72, BANGALORE DATED 15TH DECEMBER 1972.

With a view to ensure and watch the receipt of statements of the amount of taxes collected by the Departments selling goods liable to be taxed under the M.S.T. Act from all the officers concerned, the Heads of Departments were requested to prepare a list of such Officers/Institutions selling goods liable to tax and furnish the same to the Accountant General, Mysore, Bangalore and the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes containing the following particulars :—

(1) Whether there is any sale or purchase of any commodity or article in their Department in respect of which taxes can be levied. If so, a list showing the designations of the Subordinate Officers who are directly responsible for collection and remittance of taxes may be furnished.

(2) Nature of goods dealt with by them and action taken to collect taxes on such transactions and remit them to Government account, in Para 5 of this Department Circular No. FD 78 CSL 72, dated 16th August 1971.

So far none of the Heads of Department has furnished the above particulars either to the Accountant General or to the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes as required in the above quoted circular.

The Heads of Departments concerned are once again requested to prepare a list of Officers/Institutions selling goods liable to tax and furnish the same with particulars indicated in Para 1 above and furnish the same to the Accountant General, Mysore, Bangalore with a copy to the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes and the Government immediately.

A. MOHANDAS MOSES,

Deputy Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
